2. Schedule

Once you have registered your company, now all you have to do is create and schedule your events. This is done in 2 steps

- 1. Creating your events
- 2. Scheduling these events

Once this is done, you can create some memberships to be sold for these events.

3. Share your Schedule

Arguably the most important part. We want to get your schedule in front of as many peoples eyes as possible. By simply being on Wunderbook, you already connect with 50k+ users, growing by 100+ per day but let's make sure that it is with the people you want now.

In the left-hand panel, you will see Administration and in here you will see a Schedule link. This can be shared on Whats app, Website buttons and all over Socials.

Still not sure???

Well believe me, Wunderbook has the same goals as you. Get you more clients and try help keep your current clients happy.

WHY??

Because we both get paid by the same person you do, we just need 50 times the companies to get to where you are. But if we can help you grow, we also see some of the returns, so let's grow together and stay ahead of the game.

TIP 2

Give back

If you want to build a community, you have to be willing to give to that community.

3 ways to give back

- Whatever your business is create a FREE event once a week and release it every Sunday. This is going to create a bit of excitement, users will have to find the session. The joy of getting it first, the sadness of missing out but then realising they can just book. It's a fun way to give back. Provoking emotion is key to success.

- This one requires a little more work but great for community building. Find your local coffee shop and ask them to sell you 100 coffees for €2 each or their best deal. Print out business cards with your logo, their logo and FREE COFFEE on it. Now simply give them to your clients. Not only will they enjoy the fun in your service but they will also enjoy fun outside and always associate your place with that fun. This is also a great way to fill quieter times.

- With every Tom, Dick and Harry offering 6, 8, 12 week transformations to 8 middle-aged men in their 30's as long as they live within 100km of the Pauls shoe shop. Maybe it's time for a change and a genuine offer. Wunderbook allows companies to send memberships to users, all you need is an email. So, simply ask people if they want to try your gym for 1 week or even 1 day, in exchange for an email address, then send away. You could even offer a small kick back to your current members for a friend's email. Referrals are the best. One small studio gym hit 75 new clients in one month.

Collab with others

One of our favourite things to see in our amazing community is companies collabing with each other. I know this might sound daunting at first but think saunas & gyms, they work so well together. Maybe contact your local sauna, book out an hour and bring some of your clients along. Not only will they love it but they will be having fun outside your place but that feeling of community and togetherness will always be there and lead to a long successful business.

We're only scratching the surfice here

But with everyone working together for the greater good, it will allow us all too flourish.

We have been lucky enough to be asked by some of the top brands to do collabs with them. Running Gym Plus Coffees Christmas community day with got 3 of our companies together for an amazing day of

Rebounding - CrossFit - Techno Yoga

We also see this on a regular basis, with run clubs, yoga sessions & gym class, finishing in our amazing saunas.

If we take it from the users perspective, it is easier for them to just have one place to book all.

Still on the fence??

No problem, maybe now isn't the time but feel free to take some of the ideas and run with them, we wish you all the success. We also have some great contacts for insurance, council advice, so feel free to reach out to us, no pressure.

Shut up, you had me at hello, what do I do next?

Our system is so easy to use, you could literally be set up in minutes and taking bookings today.

But we do recommend a call, because trust me, we have some more great ideas and we will be able to discuss them more personally on a call. Like membership pricing, what discount codes if any should you use. We've done the research so you don't have to.

So, head over to the website and register or book a chat there.
